

GEORGIA SCHOLARS' INSTITUTE

WHO?

The Georgia Scholars' Institute is for high-achieving rising juniors and seniors in high school.

WHAT?

GSI is a 4-week residential summer program for students to experience college-life, take dual-enrollment classes, and earn Honors College credit for those courses. Learning and leisure activities will extend beyond the classroom and campus with supervised excursions that may include visits to sites such as Sweetwater Creek State Park, the Civil and Human Rights Museum in Atlanta, a Braves baseball game, and more. GSI provides a unique opportunity for students to get a jump start on their college education before enrolling full-time as a college student.

WHERE?

Students will live together in the Oaks Residence Hall located on the University of West Georgia's campus in Carrollton.

WHEN?

The Georgia Scholars' Institute takes place during the month of June. Applications for the program are now being accepted until April 15, 2023.

HOW MUCH?

The total cost to the student who is accepted through the Dual Enrollment process is $1500. Scholarship funding may be available.

WHY?

- Acquire 6 Honors College credit hours while fulfilling high school credit requirements in classes such as Intro to the Art of Film, Astronomy, Intro to Ethics, Macroeconomics, Intro to Psychology, and more!
- Experience the realities of college life while still in high school
- Participate in a community of high-achieving, like-minded peers
- Explore possible majors with other students who share a passion for learning
- Experience interactive learning opportunities with a world-class faculty
